GOVERNMENT

Historic Windsor Inc. motivated by a common interest in historic preservation
The Preservation Education Institute

Jointly present:

AN INTRODUCTION TO REPAIRING WOODEN WINDOWS

Concerned your leaky old windows are costing you money? Frustrated with windows that won't open? Worried about dealing with the lead paint on your windows? Thinking replacement windows might be the solution?

We will answer these questions and more!

STATEWIDE SERIES TO PREMIER IN BURLINGTON MONDAY, FEBRUARY 28
6:30-8:30 P.M.

Where? Department of Public Works
Building, Corner Pine Street and Lakeside
Ave, front Conference Room

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC!

Join Sally Fishburn, owner of S.A. Fishburn, Inc., an historic preservation company, and Judy Hayward, director of The Preservation Education Institute, with hands-on demonstrations on Historic Wooden Windows. The event will include information on the history, materials, and construction of wooden windows, restoration vs. replacement windows, energy efficiency, working with lead paint, window maintenance and restoration methods.

This program is sponsored by a grant from the US National Park Service Certified Local Government Program and administered by the Vermont Division for Historic Preservation. Historic Windsor is thankful to the Burlington Planning Department and Preservation Burlington for assistance in presenting this program. This program will be repeated at other sites in Vermont in 2011 and continuing education credit for architects is pending review and may be available. Please call or email Historic Windsor for details.

This program is produced by Historic Windsor, Inc. and its Preservation Education Institute.
