On November 30, 2019 at approximately 0820 hours, the Montpelier Police Department received a report of a suspicious item, located near 350 River Street. Officers from the Montpelier Police Department located the suspicious item that resembled a pipe bomb, which was approximately a foot long, made of PVC pipe, and sealed with caps on both ends. The Vermont State Police Bomb Squad was called to evaluate the suspicious object and precautionary measures were taken while the object was examined. Investigation revealed the object was a water tight container, containing trailer registration paperwork, which likely fell while in transit. No enforcement action was taken.
